C.S.I.

Nawab Akeel Jang Bahadur.

M. A. Hydari, Esquire.

Abdullah Yusuf Ali Esquire, C.B.E., I.C.S.
(Retired).

These Nobles and Officials will, if the Prince of Wales so commands, be presented by the Resident and will offer nazars of 5 gold mohurs each which His Royal Highness will touch and remit. At the close of the visit itr and pan will be presented by His Exalted Highness the Nizam to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, to the Resident, and to the Chief of His Royal Highness' Staff, and by the President of His Exalted Highness' Executive Council, assisted by the official next senior to him in rank, to the other officers. After the visit the Prince of Wales will leave Chow Mahalla under a Royal Salute of 31 guns which will be fired by His Exalted Highness' Artillery (No. 1 Field Battery) and the Guard of Honour of His Exalted Highness' Troops will salute His Royal Highness.

The afternoon of Wednesday, the 25th January 1922, has been kept free for the Prince to decide what he would like to do.

Banquet at Chow Mahalla.

In the evening His Exalted Highness the Nizam will give a Banquet for 200 guests in honour of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales at Chow Mahalla at which speeches will be made by both His Exalted Highness and His Royal Highness. The route from the Castle to Chow Mahalla will be illuminated.

THURSDAY, 26TH JANUARY, 1922.

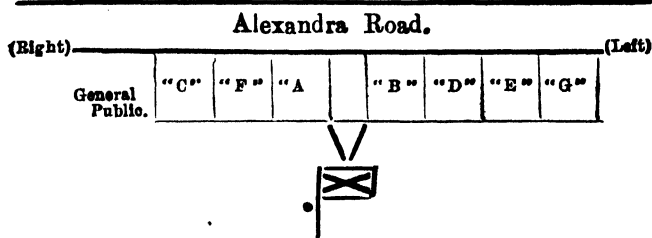

Review of Troops.

At 9-30 a. m. the Prince of Wales will review the Troops of the Garrison on the Maidan at Secunderabad. The route will be through the City past the Residency, Hussain Sagar Tank and via James Street. On arrival the Prince of Wales will exchange greetings with the Nizam and will then ride on to the parade ground.

The enclosure on the right of the flagstaff has been reserved for His Exalted Highness the Nizam and Staff, the Prince's Suite, the General Officer Commanding the Station, Secunderabad, Nobles and Officials of His Exalted Highness' Government and the Resident's Staff. On the left of the flagstaff will be an enclosure for Gazetted Officers, and their families, Civilian Members of the Secunderabad Club and Nobles and Officials of His Exalted Highness' Government who are not provided for in the enclosure above mentioned. There will also be separate enclosures for the Press and Photographers, the families and friends of British Warrant Officers, Members of the Deccan Club, Officers of His Exalted Highness the Nizam's Regular Forces and for school children.
